

POLS 120 : Introduction to World Politics

Power economics and world politics from cross-national perspectives. Discussion of U.S. foreign policy since 1945.

Credits 3

Lecture Hours 3

Designation

DS

Course Outcomes

- Explain basic terms, concepts, and principles of international relations.
- Analyze political processes, institutions, and issues in the foreign policy environment.
- Apply basic terms, concepts, and principles to everyday life.
- Assess his or her personal effectiveness in the political process.