

Library Learning Commons

The Library Learning Commons (LLC) in Hale La'akea provides the Windward CC community with a variety of services and resources. Professional librarians assist with all aspects of student research and offer customized class instruction and workshops. Study spaces in the LLC include group study rooms with whiteboards and monitors, lounge seating, quiet study carrels, and an open computer lab loaded with in-demand software. The library houses over 40,000 books, including thousands of items in the beautiful Hawaii Collection Room. Current University of Hawai'i students and employees may borrow library materials with a valid photo ID. Non-UH community members may apply for a Community Borrower Card for a modest fee.

The Library's website provides access to over 400,000 ebooks, 80,000 streaming videos, and over 60 online reference and research databases.

The LLC also hosts historical and cultural exhibits and holds events in the fine and performing arts.
