Federal Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act

Also referred to as the Wetterling Act, this act requires states to establish programs that require current address registration by residents of the state who have been convicted of sexually violent offenses or offenses involving sexual abuse or exploitation of minors, as described in the Act. The Wetterling Act is an amendment to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA) that also allows educational institutions the ability to disclose information concerning sex offenders that they receive under State sex offender registration and community notification programs. The Campus Sex Crimes Prevention Act requires colleges and universities to provide the campus community with clear guidance as to where this information can be found and to clarify that Federal laws governing the privacy of educational records do not prevent campus security agencies or other administrators from disclosing such information.

For the State of Hawai'i information regarding registered sex offenders is available through the Hawai'i Criminal Justice Data Center and can be found at:
