

DNCE 252: Applied Dance

This course provides individual instruction in dance, covering intermediate and advanced performance techniques taught to each student's individual level. Applied dance is a performance course. The emphasis will be toward developing performing skills from a wide range of methods and training. The goal is to facilitate student dancers in attaining a level of confidence and skill that allows for consistently powerful and effective performances. This course may be repeated for up to 4 credits. (1 hour Individual Instruction)

Credits: 1-4

Prerequisites:

DNCE 121

DNCE 131

A grade of C or better in DNCE 121 or DNCE 131.

Program: Dance

Student Learning Outcomes:

- Incorporate theoretical concepts in dance performance.
- Perform dance choreography.
- Demonstrate professional performance practices.