HAW 201: Intermediate Hawaiian I

Continuation of HAW 102 with emphasis on increasing proficiency in use of major sentence patterns in reading, writing, conversation, and translation.

Credits: 4
Lecture Hours: 4
Prerequisites:
Credit for HAW 102 or consent of instructor.
Program: Hawaiian Language
Student Learning Outcomes:
- Demonstrate the ability to comprehend and respond to sentence structures of greater length and complexity on a variety of topics.
- Demonstrate the ability to comprehend, speak, read and write at the intermediate level with a working vocabulary of some 1, 500 words, plus idiomatic expressions.
- Write original expositions and communicate on a variety of topics within the student’s experience.