MUS 231B: Applied Music, Western (Voice)

This course provides individual instruction in vocal performance. The course covers intermediate vocal technique paced to an appropriate level for each student's experience. Applied Voice is a performance class. The emphasis will be toward developing vocal technique that focuses on breath technique, expression, movement, clarity, dynamics, diction and musicianship. May be repeated up to 4 credits. (1 hour individual instruction)

Credits: 1
Prerequisites:
A grade of C or better in MUS 121 B
Program: Music

Student Learning Outcomes:
- Demonstrate intermediate level concepts of vocal performance.
- Demonstrate musical concepts such as rhythm, breath support, dynamics, expression, and diction in accurate performance of selected repertoire.
- Demonstrate professional performance practices.